San Francisco Division

HENRY A. KLYCE and CAROLE M.
KLYCE,

CASE NO. 11 CV 02248 WHA

Plaintiffs,

v.

DOES 1-10,

ORDER RE SUBMISSION OF
SUBPOENAS TO INTERNET SERVICE
PROVIDERS COMCAST, VERIZON, AND TIME WARNER CABLE

Defendants.

_____ /

Upon the application of Plaintiffs Henry and Carole Klyce (“Plaintiffs”) for an Order authorizing the issuance of subpoenas duces tecum to Internet Service Providers (“ISP’s”) Comcast, Verizon, and Time Warner Cable (“Roadrunner”) for documents enabling the identification of the persons who logged in to the Yahoo! email account of Carole Klyce without authorization, and good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. Plaintiffs are authorized to serve a subpoena, pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 45, on Comcast,

1 Verizon, and Time Warner Cable for documents disclosing or relating to the identity of each
2 person or entity whose IP address (at the dates and times specified in the attachment to each
3 respective subpoena) is enumerated in the subpoena. The production shall include, without 4 limitation, documents disclosing the name, address, telephone number, billing address, and
5 username of each such enumerated person.

7 2. The return date for said subpoena shall be <sup>20</sup>~~14~~ days from the date of service.

8 3. No later than ten calendar days after service of the foregoing subpoenas, each of 9 Comcast, Time Warner Cable, or Verizon may contest the subpoena served upon it by filing a
10 motion to quash in this Court; however, by no later than the date of filing of such a motion to 11 quash, all responsive documents shall be assembled and preserved pending resolution of the 12 motion to quash, and each responsive document withheld shall be identified to Plaintiff with the 13 same specificity as is required for a privilege log.
14

15 4. Within ten calendar days of service of the foregoing subpoenas duces tecum upon them,
16 Comcast, Verizon, and Time Warner Cable, respectively, shall notify each person whose identity
17 would be disclosed by compliance with the subpoena that his, her, or its identity is being sought by 18 the subpoenas authorized herein. This notice shall be communicated by email, fax, or one-day
19 express mail, and shall include a copy of this Order.
20

21 5. Each person so notified shall also be informed that he, she, or it may, by the <sup>twentieth</sup>~~fourteenth~~
22 calendar day after the date of service of the subpoena, file a motion in this Court contesting the
23 subpoena if the motion is accompanied by proof of service on Plaintiff's counsel. If any notified
24 person does file such a motion, production of responsive documents shall be stayed until five days
25 after written notice by the Plaintiffs of the Court's disposition of the motion, at which time
26
27

1 production shall be concluded in accordance with the Court's Order.

2 6. An executed copy of this Order shall accompany the subpoenas.
